

8. 6

Without any provocation from protesters, the geared police pushed forward and arrested many citizens. A man kneeled and spread his arms, preventing the police from moving further to the crowd. The police stepped back and stopped further action temporarily.

“When citizens do not respect the law, the law must respect the citizens.”

Former men

eared
ens. A

the police

stepped

our country is in danger, we're all responsible. I don't have to see any gears left in my store!"

member of Civic Passion, Keita LEE Ching Hei

8. 3

This couple helped a young woman get up after she fell at a protest. All 3 of them were arrested. They were released on bail a few days later and got married with the blessings of countless Hong Kong citizens.

Medical providers volunteer at the frontline and help those who were arrested in public hospitals.

Former members started National business license protests. Helped themselves, arrested. Do

Pro
tear

r member of Civic Passion, Keita LEE Ching Hei d National Calamity Hardware. He registered the ss license in his name, and rented a little store near ts. He hopes the people in Hong Kong can protect elves, holding true to “Don’t give up. Don’t get
ed. Don’t back down. Liberate Hong Kong.”

7.
28

Protesters helping citizens evacuate as tear gas permeates their neighborhood.